

I thought that the whole reason for being on the no call list was so that we do not have to have unwanted calls from places or people who we do not want to talk to or listen to. We as consumers have the right not to be bothered in our homes with people wanting to sell, advertise or take surveys from us. Please do not allow the banks to take away the peace and quiet that many of us rarely get around the house.